ROLL OF HONOR PLACED.

Interesting Ceremony at Meeting of Spanish Var Auxiliary. At a recent meeting of Mary A. Babcock Auxiliary to Henry A. Lawton Command, S. W. V., the "honor roll" of the auxiliary. which contains the names of the seven members of the auxiliary who lost husbands and sons during the recent war with Spain, was placed upon the wall with much ceremony. The roll is beautifully engrossed and framed in heavy block molding. The com-SPANISH, etc. pilling of the roll is the work of Mrs. Mary F. Case, the historian of the auxiliary, who was the treasurer of the Soldiers' Rest > members entitled to appear upon it enter the auxiliary. The first one to go upon the roll for 1904 is Mrs. Cora Langworthy, widow of Capt. Samuel Ransom Lang-worthy of the 35th United States Volunteers, who was with eGneral Lawton in the Philippines and who died at Balinag

February 21, 1900.

Those whose names are upon the roll of hollor, which bears two verses of the beautiful poem beginning "On fame's eternal company ground," are as follows:

Mary A. Logan, mother of John A. Logan, killed November 11, 1899, at San Jacinto, Island of Luzon, Philippine Islands.

Mary C. Lawton, wife of Henry W. Lawton, major general, killed December 19, 1899, at San Mateo, Philippine Islands.

Flora A. Lewis, mother of Louis Hoffman Lewis, lieutenant Company E, 9th Infantry, tiago, Cuba.

Ann Eliza Gridley, mother of Charles Vernon Gridley, captain United States flagship Olympia, died June 5, 1898, at Kobe, Japan, result of battle of Manila bay.

Rose E. Ferree, mother of Newton H. Ferree, sergeant Company K, 1st District of Columbia Volunteers, died August 28, 1898, at Camp Wikoff, Montauk Point, L. I.

Helen V, Mol. and wife of William E. Motiago. Cuba. Helen V. McLeod, wife of William E. Mc-Leod sergeant Company A. 5th United States Volunteer Infantry, died September

7, 1898, at Santiago, Cuba.
Grace D. Woodburn, wife of Frederick Clark Woodburn, hospital corps, died September 29, 1898, at government hospital transfer, Ponce, Porto Rico. The auxiliary presented Lawton command with a large silk flag and staff two years ago. At the last meeting a very pretty silver plate, fully inscribed with dates and names, was presented by the auxiliary to the command to be affixed to the flagstaff. One new member was mustered. The aux-iliary has commenced the study of the history of the flag, and the members feel that Falls Church and Vicinity. he funeral of A. R. Jacobs, who died at Fairfax Courthouse Wednesday of meningitis, took place today from his late residence, Rev. J. C. Hawk conducting the services. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery, at Falls Church, the members of Falls Church Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which he was a member, closing the services at the grave with the ceremonials of the order. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. H. Nowlan, C. F. Newman, J. H. Gar-W. H. Nowlan, C. F. Newman, J. H. Garretson, George v. Hawxhurst, T. O Marrand Elmer Wrenn, all members of the I. O O. F. lodge. Mr. Jacobs was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Murphy and his second Miss Emma Alder, who survives him. He leaves eight children, four sons and four daughters. He was a native of Loudoun county, movings to Fairfax many years ago. He served in the confederate army, was town sergeant of Falls Church two years and also served in the same capacity in the town of Fairfax, and at the time of his death was deputy sheriff of the county and jailer.

Mrs. Margaret C. Farr, mother of the late

Mrs. Margaret C. Farr. mother of the late R. R. Farr. who was several years ago state superintendent of public instruction, died at her home, at Fairfax Courthouse, Thursday at the advanced age of eighty-four. Her death quickly followed and was the result of a fall from the porch of her residence. She leaves a scn. Dr. R. S. Farr, who resides at Belton, Tex.

Mrs. Lucy Mankin, wife of Mr. George W. Mankin, died very suddenly at her residence on Broad street Wednesday night of heart disease. She had been in poor health for some time, but her death was very unexpected. She had lived in Falls Church for many years, moving here from Alexandria. She was a lady of lovely character and had a host of friends. Besides a husband, two sons: "d a daughter survive her. Under the law recently enacted by the band, two sons: "d a daughter survive her.

Under the law recently enacted by the legislature Judge C. E. Nicol of the circourt has appointed Messrs. J. D. DeBell, B. F. Johnson and W. M. Veale as members of the county electoral board. This board appoints the judges of election for all the precinc.s in the county. Judge Nicol has also appointed Mr. W. T. Oliver as bail commissioner. R. E. Thornton as jury commissioner and J. R. Blake as member of the school electoral board. The first term of the new circuit court for this county will convene the third Monday in March.

Mrs. Jane Galleher, who has been residing on the Tracy farm, near here, has moved into the house of Mrs. Eells, West Falls Church.
